

Reflections on Extension Leadership

Sponsored by Epsilon Sigma Phi

"Reflections on Leadership" Series Dates:
 Fall: Wednesday, December 14
 Winter: Wednesday, March 8

Each series will run 75 minutes in length.

Time: 9:45 am Pacific
 10:45 am Mountain
 11:45 am Central
 12:45 pm Eastern

Epsilon Sigma Phi is proud to announce a leadership development opportunity for all Extension professionals! A new web-based seminar series entitled "Reflections on Extension Leadership" will be offered this fall and winter. Participants can partake in one or both of the seminars. The seminars feature panel members, representing county, state, and administrative positions in Extension, who will share their perspectives, experiences, and insights on leadership. This truly unique experience offers every professional the opportunity to enhance their leadership capacity! Using just a web browser and a Speakerphone, you will be able to join this live presentation!

Fall Series Panel Members:

- Della Baker, South Carolina
- Dorothy M. Freeman, Minnesota
- Donna Donald, Iowa
- Bonnie McGee, Texas
- Mike McKinney, Florida
- Richard Wootton, NASULGC

Winter Series Panel Members:

- Kirk Astroth, Montana
- Clyde Chesney, Tennessee
- Laurel Kubin, Colorado
- Jim Lindquist, Kansas
- Scott Reed, Oregon
- Janice Stimpson, Idaho

Limited number of lines available, please register early.

Scholarships for ESP members

Scholarships are available to ESP members who take part in both sessions. The first 87 ESP members who register, first come first serve, will get one series free ($18.00 for both) while others will have to pay for both sessions ($36.00 for both). For questions about the series, costs, or how to become an ESP member, contact: Linda D. Cook, ESP Executive Director at: espoffice@espnational.org
